The perfect camping guide for families on tour

Are you dreaming of an unforgettable camping holiday with the whole family? More than ever, the idea of packing the children into the motorhome, simply setting off and discovering the most beautiful landscapes, towns and campsites is a thrilling one. But despite all the freedom – planning is essential. With this book, you have the perfect guide to get your camping trip off to a flying start. Jasmin and Jonas from @trust.and.breathe have been travelling with two children and their dog Betty in a motorhome for two years and in this book they give you everything you need to be perfectly equipped for a camping holiday with children.

They answer questions such as:

- Rent or buy a camping vehicle – what do I need to take into consideration?
- What do I need to take with me? Comprehensive packing & checklists to download
- Travelling safely with children – what do I need to consider on campsites and on board?
- Route suggestions and tips for choosing a holiday destination
- In case you get bored: the best activity ideas for young and old globetrotters

- Quick and tasty recipes for the camping kitchen

You can also look forward to impressive photos of the most beautiful landscapes and places that Jasmin and Jonas have visited with their family. They invite you to dream and show you the most beautiful aspects of a holiday in a camper, van or motorhome! Language: German.
