Pleasant heat for your caravan, boat, conservatory or apartment

Discover the Ecomat 2000 Classic Plus, the perfect heater for caravans, boats, conservatories and apartments. Enjoy comfortable heat with the highest efficiency and safety.

Flexible power levels and easy operation

The Ecomat 2000 Classic Plus offers three different power levels (450/750/1800 W) making it ideal for weakly fused lines. Thanks to the 2/4/10 A fuses, you can connect the device flexibly anywhere. The continuously adjustable electronic thermostat allows for precise temperature control and maximum comfort.

Innovative ceramic heating element

The high-quality PTC heating element of the Ecomat 2000 produces pleasant convection heat that does not dry out the air. Enjoy a cosy warmth that ensures a healthy room climate.

Reliable frost protection function

The frost protection function reliably keeps the temperature above freezing point and protects against frost damage. Ideal for use in cold environments and unattended rooms.

Safe automatic shut-off

For maximum safety, the automatic shut-off feature ensures that the device will automatically turn off if it tips over. This allows you to use the Ecomat 2000 Classic Plus with peace of mind in your apartment, on a boat or while camping.

Versatile and connectable almost anywhere

The Ecomat 2000 Classic Plus is almost universally usable, even on campsites and boat docks with a power supply of only 500 W. No problem for this versatile heater!

Maximum safety

Thanks to the construction without glowing components, the risk of fire is greatly reduced. The robust metal housing also ensures odour-neutral operation without unpleasant emissions.

Whisper-quiet operation

The Ecomat 2000 Classic Plus operates very quietly and is therefore perfectly suitable for continuous operation. Ideal for pleasant warmth that does not disturb.

PLUS function for quick heat

With the innovative PLUS function, the Ecomat 2000 Classic Plus provides quick heat whenever you need it.

Enjoy the perfect combination of safety, efficiency and comfort with the Ecomat 2000 Classic Plus.
