The Bugaboo Ceramic pans from GSI Outdoors are the perfect choice for all camping and outdoor enthusiasts who value high-quality cookware on the go. The pans are made from robust aluminium and feature a scratch-resistant ceramic coating. This combination ensures durability and even heat distribution, making cooking on a camping stove effortless.

The non-stick surface of the pan prevents food from sticking and makes cleaning particularly easy, even under the often demanding conditions of camping. With its lightweight design, the pan is easy to transport and thanks to the clever SureLock folding handle, it can be stored compactly – perfect for anyone who wants to cook comfortably in small spaces, such as in a motorhome.

Advantages:

- Made from robust aluminium for even heat distribution
- Scratch-resistant and durable ceramic coating for reliable non-stick properties
- Lightweight for easy handling and transport
- Convenient SureLock folding handle for compact storage
- Perfect for camping, outdoor cooking and all adventure
