The MAWII stainless steel mug with handle impresses with its high-quality workmanship made from durable 18/8 stainless steel. Thanks to the double-walled vacuum insulation, drinks stay reliably warm for about 12 hours or refreshingly cold for up to 24 hours – ideal for on the go, camping or everyday use.

The practical lid with sliding closure provides additional protection and reduces heat or cold loss. Please note: the lid is not leakproof and is not suitable for carbonated drinks or for storing food.

The durable colour coating is shatterproof, does not peel off and shows no cracks. This keeps the mug attractive and hygienic over time. For cleaning, hand washing is recommended, as the stainless steel mug is not dishwasher-safe.

Advantages:

- Robust material: 18/8 stainless steel, rust-resistant and durable
- Double-walled vacuum insulation: approx. 12 hours warm, approx. 24 hours cold
- Practical lid with sliding closure (not leakproof)
- Shatterproof, colourfast coating
