The self-inflating mat Highway Campervan is perfect for VW California, Mercedes-Benz Marco Polo and similar camper vans. With a generous lying surface of 200 x 114 cm, it provides excellent sleeping comfort while travelling.

Thanks to the double flat high-flow valve, the mat is quickly and effortlessly inflated. The 7.5 cm thick foam filling with 3D box design ensures a stable, even lying surface and good insulation against cold from the ground. Extra-large foam channels allow comfortable air circulation and increase lying comfort.

The durable stretch polyester with TPU coating is long-lasting, shape-retaining and pleasantly soft on the skin. Despite its robust construction, the mat can be rolled up compactly and stored space-savingsly in the included carry bag.

Advantages:

- Fits many camper vans
- Quickly set up thanks to high-flow valve
- High sleeping quality due to 7.5 cm thickness
- Robust, durable material
