GOK

Information

Pack size	15 x 17 x 5 cm
Net weight	244 g
Gross weight	244 g

The angle connector is designed for surface mounting of gas sockets. It is suitable for both natural gas and liquefied gas. The angle enables a secure and stable attachment of the gas socket to the wall.

The wall flange simplifies installation and provides a reliable connection between the gas pipe and the gas socket.

This angle connector is ideal for applications requiring flexible and secure mounting.
