Discover 150 unique campsites in Germany that you definitely do not know yet!

Make 2026 your camping year! This camping guide will accompany you to the most beautiful regions of Germany. Away from the crowds, discover 150 unique campsites with an experience factor – from private hosts, far away from the stress of everyday life!

Why do you absolutely need this book? You will learn which regions you must camp in at least once and what to expect there: events, activities, culinary specialities. Once you have chosen one of the regions, this book will show you the most beautiful spots for your trip. Additionally, there are exclusive tips from the respective hosts that can only be found in this book.

Between the vines in a vineyard, on a historic farm, right by the lake or comfortably at the edge of a forest. Be it alone, with friends, family or with your dog. Be it in a motorhome, caravan, van or roof tent. The insider tips in this travel guide are from campers for campers and allow you to camp as you deserve! Close to nature, spontaneously and away from the crowds.
