The camping table Bono combines modern design with high functionality. Height-adjustable legs allow you to adapt the table to different seating heights, while the construction provides plenty of legroom and a stable base – ideal for camping, awnings or gardens.

The lightweight, durable honeycomb-patterned tabletop and the foldable frame make the Bono particularly easy to transport. With space for up to four people, it is a practical solution for families and small groups.

Advantages:

- Height-adjustable camping table for flexible seating heights
- Stable construction with plenty of legroom
- Lightweight, robust honeycomb-patterned tabletop
- Foldable and compact for storage
- Suitable for up to four people
