The motorhome handbook ACSI Wohnmobil-Handbuch is an indispensable companion for anyone who wants to travel by motorhome. The book has been developed from practical experience and contains helpful tips as well as well-founded information for people who already own a motorhome or are considering purchasing one. A motorhome stands for maximum freedom – but many find that it is quite a complex vehicle. This handbook supports motorhome travellers in making the right decisions step by step. The book is complemented by inspiring travel reports from experienced camping experts who have been on the road themselves. Language: German.
