Effective mosquito protection for every occasion

Experience the reliable protection of the anti-mosquito candle from Pharmavoyage! Perfect for indoors and outdoors.

- Contains soy wax and geraniol
- Soy wax produces very little soot compared to paraffin candles.
- Laboratory-tested: in vivo studies show that this candle is five times more effective than lemongrass candles.
- Long-lasting: provides up to 20 hours of protection against mosquitoes
- Compact and light: ideal for travel, picnics, camping, hiking, or at home
- Perfect for groups: provides reliable protection within a radius of about 1 meter

Protect yourself and your family from annoying mosquito bites with the anti-mosquito candle from Pharmavoyage!
