Transforms any stove into a barbecue

The universal grill grate is suitable for stoves of various brands, including the 2 Cook from CADAC | Dometic. The grate has a ceramic coating and is therefore completely PFOA-free.

With the detachable handle, the grill grate can be easily placed on the stove's pan support and is ready for grilling. The grooves create beautiful grill patterns on meat, fish and vegetables.

Thanks to the included transport/storage bag, you can safely store and transport the grate.
