The glass lid RoadTop is the clever addition for all portable ovens with a diameter of 25 cm – including models such as the Omnia oven (classic and maxi), VAMO or the Petromax camping oven. With its large, heat-resistant viewing window made of safety glass, it allows you to continuously observe the baking process without having to lift the lid. This ensures even results and makes the oven easier to use – be it on the go, while camping or at home.

Thanks to its high-quality craftsmanship and thoughtful design, the RoadTop meets the highest demands for functionality and quality. The easy replacement of the standard lid makes it the ideal choice for those who want to leave nothing to chance when baking.

Advantages:

- Fits mobile ovens with a diameter of 25 cm
- Compatible with Omnia (classic/maxi), VAMO and Petromax ovens
- Large viewing window made of heat-resistant safety glass
- Convenient monitoring of the baking process without lifting the lid
- Even heat distribution
