The detachable pan handle for maximum flexibility and protection

The Torre Bakelite detachable pan handle is the perfect addition to your kitchen. With an impressive load capacity of up to 10 kg, it offers stability and safety when using your pans on all types of stoves.

Thanks to the integrated silicone clip, the handle protects your cookware from scratches and damage. Whether you are frying, cooking or baking – Torre Bakelite not only makes your kitchen tasks easier but also takes care of your pots and pans at the same time.

The true strength of this innovative handle becomes apparent after cooking: it allows you to stack your cookware space-savingly, keeping your kitchen tidy and organised. This creates space for other important kitchen utensils and optimises your work surfaces.

Advantages:

- High load capacity: load capacity of up to 10 kg for versatile applications.
- Gentle function: silicone clip prevents scratches and damage to cookware.
