This dish brush features an ergonomic handle made of durable stainless steel and non-slip silicone that fits perfectly in the hand and ensures pleasant and safe handling. The robust construction guarantees a long service life.

The brush head is made of certified beechwood and the bristles are a high-quality mix of horsehair. The bristles thoroughly remove dirt without scratching delicate surfaces – ideal for glasses, porcelain, silver, as well as pots and pans. Thanks to the simple replacement mechanism, the brush head can be easily exchanged.

Advantages:

- Robust stainless steel handle with non-slip silicone addition
- Replaceable brush head made of FSC®-certified beechwood
- Gentle yet effective bristles for various surfaces

The brush head is sold separately and is easy to replace.
